We still have several vacancies for the standing committees and expect our members to voluntarily serve these positions. Please contact the committee chair(s) or me if you are willing to contribute to. The EC members are confident to work together and move the society forward based on the foundation built up by previous leadership groups and our members at large. We know we have many things to complete and will work hard for the best interests of our association. We are continuing to learn something new, to improve our performance, to implement tasks expected by our members, and to achieve our organizational missions with you together.

Li Chen, Ph. D, Chair
Executive Council
President of ICSPAH
